

Saturday 28 January 9.30am-5.30pm

TAKE BACK OUR WORLD

Freeing ourselves from the power of big business
Charles Wilson building, Kelvin Way, Glasgow, G12 8QQ

9.30am Registration and coffee

10am Opening plenary

Welcome from Radical Independence Campaign and Nick Dearden (Global Justice Now)

Opening speaker: Larry Sanders

Global south corporates campaigner: Dorothy-Grace Guerrero

Q&A

11.15am How corporations are capturing the world

Three themed break-out sessions

1. The global commons and natural resources: Dorothy-Grace Guerrero, Monica Vargas (Transnational Institute), Mika Minio-Paluello (Platform)
2. The media: Adam Ramsay (OpenDemocracy), David Miller (Spinwatch)
3. Government: Hilary Wainwright (Red Pepper), Christine Berry (New Economics Foundation)

12.30pm Lunch

1.30pm Beating corporate power

1. The global campaign to rein in the power of corporations: Brid Brennan (Transnational Institute), Jonathon Shafi (RIC), Jean Blaylock (Global Justice Now)
2. Grassroots challenges to corporate power: Patti Kydd (Switched on London), Geneviève Savigny (La Via Campesina)

2.30pm Campaigns that are winning: How to fight corporate power on our doorstep

Three themed break-out sessions

1. Beating the new wave of neoliberal trade deals: Liz Murray (Global Justice Now), local activist (tbc)
2. Privatisation, public services and renationalisation: Hilary Wainwright (Red Pepper), Tiffany Kane (Common Weal), Professor Robert McMaster (Glasgow University)
3. Taking back control of the food system: Geneviève Savigny (La Via Campesina), Bella Crowe (Nourish Scotland) and Jean Blaylock (Global Justice Now)

3.45pm Campaign skills

Three themed workshops

1. Researching corporations: Brid Brennan and Monica Vargas (Transnational Institute)
2. Setting up a local campaign: Bryan Simpson (Better Than Zero campaign), Radical Independence Campaign
3. Citizen journalism and social media: Angela Haggerty (CommonSpace)
4. Campaigning 101- getting your message across: Kirsty Haigh and Melissa Cespedes del Sur (Global Justice Now)

5pm Closing remarks

5.30pm End

 Global Justice
Now

 RIC